VOL. VIII. BUTLER, MISSOURI, WEDNESDAY NOVEMBER 10, 1886 NO.50

MANGUS MAD.

The celebrated Apache chief Mangus and thirteen bucks and squaws, members of the Chiricahua band, passed through the city yesterday in charge of Lieutenants Call and Finlay of H. Tenth infantry, and a guard of twelve men. They are being transported to Fort Marion, Florida. Mangus gave the guards considerable trouble on the trip from Santa Fe to this city. Once he jumped from the car window while the train was running at a high rate of speed. When Mangus was taken back on board the cars after his wonderful leap for liberty he became very desperate. One hand came out of the manacles he wore and he slugged one of the soldiers with the iron knocking him down. He then got down on the floor under the seat and fought half a dozen soldiers. The rest of the Apaches set a howl but were kept in check by the soldiers, with cocked guns. Mangus was finally stretched across two seats and tied from head to foot with bell cord. He has several times attempted to take his life. He became possessed of a knife while at the union depot and made a savage attack on the interpreter. The latter drew his revolver and finally disarmed the savage chief. It is very probable they will not get him to his destination alive.

High Hill Review.

A few alleged democrats were busy all day Tuesday scratching off the name of Glazebrook and substituting that of Burch. The same was done in the case of one or two other candidates. By their works shall ye know them.

Billy O. Jackson staid over from Monday night's speaking and worked like a beaver the most of the day at the polls in the interest of the democratic ticket.

Col. Culbertson was in from Shobe City Tuesday to cast his vote straight and returned to his ranche in the evening. The Colonel put up 600 ton of bottom hay the past season and is thinking of purchasing a large herd of cattle to feed during the winter. His bottom land is very suitable for the purpose, as it is now one of the finest pastures in the Marais des Cygnes bottoms, and will furnish pasturage the greater part of the winter.

Dave Fotheringham, the express messenger alleged to have been assaulted and robbed while making his regular run out of St. Louis over the St. Louis & San Francisco Railroad one day last week, was for some time a resident of this city—and for a while night clerk at the Talmage. He is also one of the Review's old subscribers, and we hope to see him clear himself of all collusion or complicity in the late robbery, which now foots up to nearly $100,000, instead of $50,000 as at first supposed.

One of Maine's many cranks is Enas Gove of Lewiston, who thinks that he is the Saviour. He is over 60, has long white hair and beard, wears a long coat and cape of bright red, a tall white hat with a broad white band and flowing ends, white trousers, and moccasins. He also carries a white umbrella and a very gorgeous horse blanket for cold weather. He makes an occasional dime by selling his photograph on the back of which is this inscription: "Elias Gove, Emanuel the Prince of Peace, Jesus Christ, who baptized himself with the aid of the Holy Ghost, and is the son of Doroty Jane Gove, who translated his spirit from God."

The Andrews Opera Co. will appear at Walton's Opera House Friday night, Nov. 12th, in Gilbert & Sullivan's great comic opera, "The Mikado." This is a strictly first-class Co. Mr. Andrews, the Ko Ko of the Co., is said to be the best Ko Ko on the American stage. Their usual price of admission is $1 and they wrote Manager Kinney that they would not play anywhere for less than 75 cents, but he has taken the liberty to make the admission 50, 35 and 25 cents, and a crowded house should be the result. Tickets now on sale at the Butler National Bank. This is the only Co. booked for November—do not fail to go.
